HOW GREAT THOU ART

O Lord my God, when I in awesome wonder
Consider all the worlds thy hands have made,
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder,
Thy power throughout the universe displayed:

Refrain

Then sings my soul, my Savior God, to thee:
How great thou art! How great thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Savior God, to thee:
How great thou art! How great thou art!
When through the woods and forest glades
I wander
And hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees,
When I look down from
Lofty mountain grandeur,
And hear the brook and feel the gentle
breeze:

Refrain

Then sings my soul, my Savior God, to thee:
How great thou art! How great thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Savior God, to thee:
How great thou art! How great thou art!

11:00 a.m.

GREAT IS THY FAITHFULNESS

Great is Thy faithfulness,
O God my Father;
There is no shadow of turning with Thee;
Thou changest not, Thy compassions,
They fail not;
As Thou hast been,
Thou forever will be.

Chorus

Great is Thy faithfulness!
Great is Thy faithfulness!
Morning by morning new mercies I see.
All I have needed Thy hand hath provided;
Great is Thy faithfulness, Lord, unto me!

Summer and winter and
Springtime and harvest,
Sun, moon and stars in their courses above
Join with all nature in manifold witness
To Thy great faithfulness, mercy and love.

Chorus

Great is Thy faithfulness!
Great is Thy faithfulness!
Morning by morning new mercies I see.
All I have needed Thy hand hath provided;
Great is Thy faithfulness, Lord, unto me!

Unison Scriptures

7:30 a.m. and 6:00 p.m.

2 Samuel 4:4 (NIV)

⁴(Jonathan son of Saul had a son who was lame in both feet. He was five years old when the news about Saul and Jonathan came from Jezreel. His nurse picked him up and fled, but as she hurried to leave, he fell and became disabled. His name was Mephibosheth.)

11:00 a.m.

2 Samuel 4:4 (The Message)

⁴It so happened that Saul's son, Jonathan, had a son who was maimed in both feet. When he was five years old, the report on Saul and Jonathan came from Jezreel. His nurse picked him up and ran, but in her hurry to get away she fell, and the boy was maimed. His name was Mephibosheth.

Litany for the Ministry to Black Boys

Minister: The African-American community and family are suffering because too many of our boys never make it into Unashamedly Black and Unapologetically Christian Manhood.

Congregation: We affirm that this is a crisis that warrants our prayerful attention.

Minister: The Bible says, in Proverbs 22:6, “Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it.”

Congregation: We affirm the wisdom of this scripture.

Minister: The African Proverb says that “It takes a whole village to raise a child.”

Congregation: We affirm the wisdom of this proverb from our Motherland.

Minister: Isuthu means “Coming into Manhood” in Xhosa, the mother tongue of Nelson Mandela, and it is the name of our Rites of Passage Ministry to our boys and parents.

Congregation: We affirm the presence of the Isuthu Ministry in our Village.

Minister: The Men of Isuthu have accepted God’s call to mentor our boys from “maleness to manhood.”

Congregation: We affirm the men who have accepted this sacred task and we call for more men to join them.

Minister: Hearing this call, we invite other men of Trinity who are willing and supportive to join the men of Isuthu at this altar for prayer.

Minister: Lord, we pray as a community of faith, for the inspiration and strengthening of the men of Trinity United Church of Christ so that they will move towards committed involvement in Isuthu and in the lives of young Black males who need this outpouring of love and support to save them from psychological, spiritual, and even physical death at an early age.

Congregation: Lord, hear our prayer.

Minister: Lord, we pray that the ranks of the Isuthu Ministry will be increased with men who are committed to Christ, Culture, and Community and that young Black males who are hungry for the love and wisdom of these men would also come forward.

Congregation: Lord, hear our prayer.

All: Lord, strengthen our resolve and help us be steadfast in our commitment made this day to continue in prayer and support for both the Men of Isuthu and the boys they serve going forward.

Minister: Let the Church say, Amen!

All: Amen!

A Message from the Africa Ministry...

SLAVERY IN MAURITANIA

Today, in the year 2014, slavery still exists in the world. Mauritania, located in West Africa, has the highest percentage of enslaved people in the world. More people are enslaved, percentage-wise, in Mauritania today, than were enslaved in the United States prior to the Civil War in 1860.

Mauritania's slavery is as abusive and violent today, as American slavery was 150 years ago. Children are sold away from their families, women and girls are raped, and all are beaten.

Mauritanian slavery is based on race and descent. Dark Africans are enslaved by lighter Africans and persons of Arabic descent. Slavery is inter-generational, with many people being born into slavery because their parents were slaves.

Learn more about Mauritanian slavery at www.StoppingSlavery.org.
