Unison Scriptures

7:30 a.m.

PSALM 91 (NRSV)

¹You who live in the shelter of the Most High, who abide in the shadow of the Almighty, ²will say to the LORD, “My refuge and my fortress; my God, in whom I trust.” ³For he will deliver you from the snare of the fowler and from the deadly pestilence; ⁴he will cover you with his pinions, and under his wings you will find refuge; his faithfulness is a shield and buckler. ⁵You will not fear the terror of the night, or the arrow that flies by day, ⁶or the pestilence that stalks in darkness, or the destruction that wastes at noonday.

⁷A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not come near you. ⁸You will only look with your eyes and see the punishment of the wicked. ⁹Because you have made the LORD your refuge, the Most High your dwelling place, ¹⁰no evil shall befall you, no scourge come near your tent. ¹¹For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways. ¹²On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone. ¹³You will tread on the lion and the adder, the young lion and the serpent you will trample under foot. ¹⁴Those who love me, I will deliver; I will protect those who know my name. ¹⁵When they call to me, I will answer them; I will be with them in trouble, I will rescue them and honor them. ¹⁶With long life I will satisfy them, and show them my salvation.

11:00 a.m.

PSALM 121 (NRSV)

¹I lift up my eyes to the hills—from where will my help come? ²My help comes from the LORD, who made heaven and earth. ³He will not let your foot be moved; he who keeps you will not slumber. ⁴He who keeps Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.

⁵The LORD is your keeper; the LORD is your shade at your right hand. ⁶The sun shall not strike you by day, nor the moon by night. ⁷The LORD will keep you from all evil; he will keep your life. ⁸The LORD will keep your going out and your coming in from this time on and forevermore.

6:00 p.m.

ISAIAH 44:6-8 (KJV)

⁶Thus saith the LORD the King of Israel, and his redeemer the LORD of hosts; I am the first, and I am the last; and beside me there is no God. ⁷And who, as I, shall call, and shall declare it, and set it in order for me, since I appointed the ancient people? and the things that are coming, and shall come, let them shew unto them.

⁸Fear ye not, neither be afraid: have not I told thee from that time, and have declared it? ye are even my witnesses. Is there a God beside me? yea, there is no God; I know not any.

Pastor's Word

Beloved,

I write this letter to share my joy with you this day as our Pastor Emeritus, Rev. Dr. Jeremiah A. Wright, Jr., takes the pulpit to preach this month, as we revive, restore, and reconnect our spirits with a God.

I write this letter to you this day also to share my excitement as this July, Monica and I will celebrate 20 years of marriage. We are retreating as a family. We will celebrate in a special way this month. We are not with you today as we begin our family vacation and prepare for our 20th year anniversary celebration.

It was 20 years ago, in Orlando, Florida, we shared our vows, and 26 years ago we met on the grounds of the Friendship Baptist Church in Atlanta, Georgia, the temporary home of Morehouse College and the birthplace of Spelman College.

I thank God for blessing me with a phenomenal woman and life partner in Monica Brown Moss. It is by the grace of God we have made it thus far through all of the dangers, toils, and challenges marital and ministry life brings upon a family.

We will be praying for you and ask that you pray for us as we take time to refresh, renew, and revive our spirits as a family and as a couple.

Asking you to imagine,

Rev. Dr. Otis Moss III
Senior Pastor

Youth Prayer

Holy Father up above, we come to You to thank You for Your protection, love, and guidance. You accept all into Your temple and we praise Your Name. You've been our Guard through the "highways and byways" and through toils and trials, but we made it because of You, O Lord. Your love is unconditional and everlasting; and, furthermore we love You more and more. Your guidance over the years has taught us what's wrong and what's right. And whether that teaching was through experience or watching, we learned, O Lord. For we know we are not a perfect people but we ask that You would show us how to become of Your Name. Speak to us, help us to open our ears to hear Your voice and open our eyes to Your presence. Enter into our hearts and open them to all insights, people, and things. Father, I ask that You help us to show love to all, friend or foe. Heal us, forgive us, help us, O Lord. Calm our spirits, Father. Soothe the world with Your Hands. Help us to capture the good times and remember the bad as a learning experience. For Jesus learned and taught we shall do the same and be of Your Name. In Your Name we pray, amen.

Wednesday, July 23, 2014

1:00 p.m. - 2:30 p.m.

Harlan Community High School Auditorium
9652 S. Michigan Ave., Chicago, IL

Each year, Children's Defense Fund Freedom School sites across the nation join in a National Day of Social Action. They engage their communities to "take action" on a relevant social issue for children. In the past, they have taken part in a variety of actions, including visiting and writing letters to elected officials, joining together for marches and rallies, and leading public awareness campaigns. In keeping with the tradition of CDF Freedom Schools, children not only explore the problems facing their communities, they also actively work toward solutions.

In honor of the 50th Anniversary of Freedom Summer, this year's National Day of Social Action will rally support for investments in early childhood development and learning and launch a creative child empowerment and voter education campaign.

Prof. Jon Rieder, author of

Gospel of Freedom:

Martin Luther King, Jr.'s Letter from Birmingham Jail and the Struggle That Changed a Nation

"I am in Birmingham because injustice is here," declared Martin Luther King, Jr. He had come to that city of racist terror convinced that massive protest could topple Jim Crow. But the insurgency faltered. To revive it, King made a sacrificial act on Good Friday, April 12, 1963: he was arrested. Alone in his cell, reading a newspaper, he found a statement from eight "moderate" clergymen who branded the protests extremist and "untimely."

King drafted a furious rebuttal that emerged as the "Letter from Birmingham Jail" – a work that would take its place among the masterpieces of American moral argument alongside those of Thoreau and Lincoln. His insistence on the urgency of "Freedom Now" would inspire not just the marchers of Birmingham and Selma, but peaceful insurgents from Tiananmen to Tahrir Squares.

Scholar Jonathan Rieder delves deeper than anyone before into the Letter-illuminating both its timeless message and its crucial position in the history of civil rights. Rieder has interviewed King's surviving colleagues, and located rare audiotapes of King speaking in the mass meetings of 1963. Gospel of Freedom gives us a startling perspective on the Letter and the man who wrote it: an angry prophet who chastised American whites, found solace in the faith and resilience of the slaves, and knew that moral appeal without struggle never brings justice.

A TOWN HALL COMMUNITY ACTION FORUM ON HEPATITIS C

With Stellar and Grammy award winner,
VaShawn Mitchell

Hosted by Rev. Dr. Otis Moss III

Thursday, August 14, 2014
6:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m. • Sanctuary
(Doors open at 5:00 p.m.)

Get the facts from leading public health experts in our area! While anyone can get Hepatitis C, more than 75% of adults with Hepatitis C are baby boomers - born between 1945-1965. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention has strongly suggested that every baby boomer living in the USA get screened for Hepatitis C!

Good news! Early screening and treatment can eliminate the Hepatitis C virus from the body; liver damage and liver cancer can be prevented!
