I NEED THEE

Verse 1

I need thee every hour,
Most gracious Lord; No tender voice
Like thine can peace afford.

Refrain

I need Thee, O I need Thee;
Ev'ry hour I need Thee;
O bless me now my Savior,
I come to Thee.

Verse 2

I need Thee every hour;
Stay Thou nearby; temptations lose
Their pow'r when Thou art nigh.

Verse 3

I need Thee every hour,
In joy or pain; Come quickly
And abide, or life is vain.

Unison Scripture

DANIEL 3:17-19 (NIV)

¹⁷If we are thrown into the blazing furnace, the God we serve is able to deliver us from it, and he will deliver us from Your Majesty's hand. ¹⁸But even if he does not, we want you to know, Your Majesty, that we will not serve your gods or worship the image of gold you have set up." ¹⁹Then Nebuchadnezzar was furious with Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, and his attitude toward them changed. He ordered the furnace heated seven times hotter than usual.

Confession of Sins

Almighty and Most Merciful Father, we come before You, acknowledging our sins, our shortcomings, and our breaking of our Covenant with You.

Not only have we done things we ought not to have done, said things we ought not to have said, left undone so many things we ought to have done and been silent when we should have witnessed for You.

Not only are we guilty of that, O Lord; but we have also closed our eyes and pretended not to see the injustices, the racism and the evil which pervade our everyday lives.

We have shut our ears and pretended not to hear the cries for liberation which come from the lips, lives and hearts of the oppressed – even our own Black brothers and sisters!

Forgive us, O Lord, renew our courage and faith, and keep us ever mindful of Thy great sacrifice. Hear us, we beseech Thee, as we come to You in love and worship giving Your Name the praise forevermore.

To All Our Visitors ... To all who mourn and need comforting ... To all who are friendless and want friendship ... To all who are oppressed and need liberation; and to whosoever will come, Trinity opens its doors. Thank you for coming, and may God bless you.

Stewardship Tithing Litany

- Minister: Tithing is the biblical principle of returning 10% to God first.
- Congregation: The earth is the Lord's, and everything in it, the world, and all who live in it.
- Minister: Debt is a spiritual issue. We are robbing God's people when we live beyond our means, refuse to budget, invest, save, and tithe; we are seduced by debt.
- Congregation: The land must not be sold permanently, because the land is Mine and you reside in My land as foreigners and strangers.
- Minister: Tithing, budgeting, and stewardship are the solutions to the spiritual problem of debt.
- Congregation: Now it is required that those who have been given a trust must prove faithful.
- Minister: Debt is fed by the desire for immediate gratification, poor planning, and the need to keep up appearances.
- Congregation: His master replied, 'Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness!'
- Minister: Tithing, saving, budgeting, and good stewardship of resources is the calling of all Christians.
- Congregation: Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over, will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured to you.
- Minister: Debt slavery has been used since 1863 to prevent people of African descent from gaining power and independence.
- Congregation: Share with the Lord's people who are in need. Practice hospitality.
- Minister: Our ancestors were forced into slavery. Today, we volunteer to be enslaved by debt and we mortgage our children's future.
- Together: O God, we have been called to be a debt-free congregation. We are called to teach our community, children, and grandchildren the discipline of tithing, the power of budgeting, the blessing of saving, and the benefit of investing. We desire to live debt-free because it honors God and our ancestors, who died not for debt, but that we may live free with our God. Amen.

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST
RAISE THE ROOF CAMPAIGN

Then I said to them, "You see the trouble we are in: Jerusalem lies in ruins, and its gates have been burned with fire. Come, let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem, and we will no longer be in disgrace." . . . They replied, "Let us start rebuilding." So they began this good work.

Nehemiah 2:17-18 NIV

Family,

When Trinity UCC embarked on our journey to Raise the Roof in August of 2013, we were stepping out on faith. God had provided a vision to Pastor Moss to reach beyond basic infrastructure updates for our church, and to instead stand with His teachings to be good stewards of His Creation, and to install a Green roof and other energy efficient updates.

We have now raised pledges from our church family of over $4.8 million . . . a stone's throw away from our goal of $5 million!

The good news is that we will soon shift our focus from encouraging pledges, to completing our pledges. The even better news is that we will also soon begin to actually "Raise the Roof" as projects that are now in their planning stage move into an implementation stage.

Currently, we are less than $200,000 away from our goal. This could easily be achieved if 700 members/families:

- Pledged $10 a month for 4 years, or $120 a year, we would exceed our goal by $136,000!
- Pledged $5 a week, for 3 years, or $160 a year, we would exceed our goal by $346,000!

If you have yet to pledge, it would be wonderful if you have it in your heart to do so in the next week or so. If you have already made your pledge, it will be critical of the coming months, and even years, for you to meet your commitments.

Thank you for your prayers, thank you for your commitment to our Lord and Savior and His church, and thank you for considering a pledge to Trinity UCC's Raise the Roof Campaign.

God bless you and yours,

Rev. Mark A. Smith
Executive Minister of Stewardship

Prof. Jon Rieder, author of Gospel of Freedom:

Martin Luther King, Jr.'s Letter from Birmingham Jail and the Struggle That Changed a Nation

"I am in Birmingham because injustice is here," declared Martin Luther King, Jr. He had come to that city of racist terror convinced that massive protest could topple Jim Crow. But the insurgency faltered. To revive it, King made a sacrificial act on Good Friday, April 12, 1963: he was arrested. Alone in his cell, reading a newspaper, he found a statement from eight "moderate" clergymen who branded the protests extremist and "untimely."

King drafted a furious rebuttal that emerged as the "Letter from Birmingham Jail" – a work that would take its place among the masterpieces of American moral argument alongside those of Thoreau and Lincoln. His insistence on the urgency of "Freedom Now" would inspire not just the marchers of Birmingham and Selma, but peaceful insurgents from Tiananmen to Tahrir Squares.

Scholar Jonathan Rieder delves deeper than anyone before into the Letter-illuminating both its timeless message and its crucial position in the history of civil rights. Rieder has interviewed King's surviving colleagues, and located rare audiotapes of King speaking in the mass meetings of 1963. Gospel of Freedom gives us a startling perspective on the Letter and the man who wrote it: an angry prophet who chastised American whites, found solace in the faith and resilience of the slaves, and knew that moral appeal without struggle never brings justice.

2014 Trinity UCC Theme “Loving God, Living Green, Liberating All”

LOVING GOD

January • Deuteronomy 6:5 (NIV)

Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength.

February • Psalm 119:105-106 (NIV)

Your word is a lamp for my feet, a light on my path. I have taken an oath and confirmed it, that I will follow your righteous laws.

March • John 15:10 (NIV)

If you keep my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father’s commands and remain in his love.

April • Romans 14:19 (NIV)

Let us therefore make every effort to do what leads to peace and to mutual edification.

LIVING GREEN

May • Psalm 24:1 (NIV)

The earth is the Lord’s and everything in it, the world, and all who live in it.

June • Genesis 1:29-30 (NIV)

Then God said, “I give you every seed-bearing plant on the face of the whole earth and every tree that has fruit with seed in it. They will be yours for food. And to all the beasts of the earth and all the birds in the sky and all the creatures that move along the ground—everything that has the breath of life in it—I give every green plant for food.” And it was so.

July • Job 38:4-7 (NIV)

Where were you when I laid the earth’s foundations? Tell me if you understand. Who marked off its dimensions? Surely you know! Who stretched a measuring line across it? On what were its footings set or who laid its cornerstone while the morning stars sang together for joy!

August • Deuteronomy 24:19 (NIV)

When you are harvesting in your field and you overlook a sheaf, do not go back to get it. Leave it for the foreigner, the fatherless and the widow, so that the Lord your God may bless you in all the work of your hands.

LIBERATING ALL

September • Galatians 5:1 (NIV)

It is for freedom that Christ set us free. Stand firm, then, and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery.

October • Galatians 5:13 (NIV)

You, my brothers and sisters, were called to be free. But do not use your freedom to indulge the flesh; rather, serve one another humbly in Love.

November • Galatians 3:28 (NIV)

There is neither Jew nor Gentile, neither slave nor free, nor is there male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus.

December • Luke 4:18-19 (NIV)

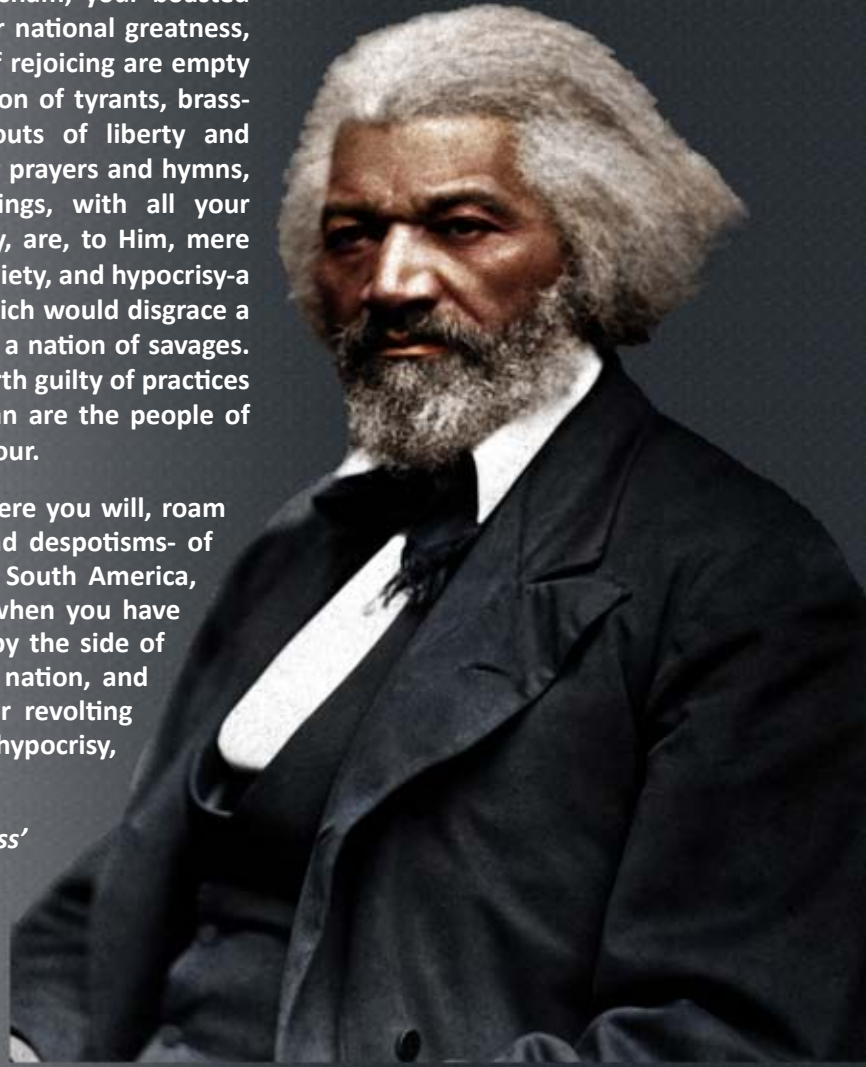

The spirit of the Lord is on me, because he anointed me to preach good news to the poor, he has sent me to proclaim freedom for the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to set the oppressed free, to proclaim the favorable year of the Lord.

. . . For the present, it is enough to affirm the equal manhood of the Negro race. Is it not as astonishing that, while we are plowing, planting, and reaping, using all kinds of mechanical tools, erecting houses, constructing bridges, building ships, working in metals of brass, iron, copper, and secretaries, having among us lawyers doctors, ministers, poets, authors, editors, orators, and teachers; and that, while we are engaged in all manner of enterprises common to other men, digging gold in California, capturing the whale in the Pacific, feeding sheep and cattle on the hillside, living, moving, acting, thinking, planning, living in families as husbands, wives, and children, and above all, confessing and worshiping the Christian's God, and looking hopefully for life and immortality beyond the grave, we are called upon to prove that we are men!

. . . What, to the American slave, is your Fourth of July? I answer: a day that reveals to him, more than all other days in the year, the gross injustice and cruelty to which he is the constant victim. To him, your celebration is a sham; your boasted liberty, an unholy license; your national greatness, swelling vanity; your sounds of rejoicing are empty and heartless; your denunciation of tyrants, brass-fronted impudence; your shouts of liberty and equality, hollow mockery; your prayers and hymns, your sermons and thanksgivings, with all your religious parade and solemnity, are, to Him, mere bombast, fraud, deception, impiety, and hypocrisy—a thin veil to cover up crimes which would disgrace a nation of savages. There is not a nation of savages. There is not a nation on the earth guilty of practices more shocking and bloody than are the people of the United States at this very hour.

Go where you may, search where you will, roam through all the monarchies and despotisms- of the Old World, travel through South America, search out every abuse, and when you have found the last, lay your facts by the side of the everyday practices of this nation, and you will say with me that, for revolting barbarity and shameless hypocrisy, America reigns without a rival.
