All Is Not Well: A Time for Prophetic Grief

Influential faith leaders mourn following the decision not to indict the officer who killed Tamir Rice. Auburn Seminary Senior Fellows

“There is a strange comfortability with black death. Even grief is subjugated by an imagination birthed by race where victims are always culpable for their own demise. Black tears are of no consequence because they come from bodies deemed defective by the myths of racialized thinking. Until all hearts begin to break and mothers of privilege join the funeral procession only then will sorrow cease to be our song.”

— The Rev. Dr. Otis Moss III, Senior Pastor of Trinity United Church of Christ, Chicago

“The blood of Tamir Rice is on our hands and cries out to us from the ground, not for revenge but for justice. The prophet Isaiah teaches us that the very act of doing justice brings us closer to God. Every time we act as if black lives don’t matter we move farther from God. As people of faith and moral courage, we are crying out from the rooftops to wake up, repent, and act to transform hearts, minds, and systems because lives and the very soul of this country hang in the balance.”

— The Rev. Dr. Katharine Rhodes Henderson, President, Auburn Seminary, New York

“Two thousand years ago the Rabbis of the Talmud warned: one must not eat and drink and say “All’s well with me!” when the community is in pain. When a 12-year-old child holding a toy gun is shot to death and no one is held accountable, all is not well — and not only for our black and brown brothers and sisters. Our nation is in pain. Our human community is in pain. Until there is justice, we are not well. #propheticgrief”

— Rabbi Sharon Brous, Founding Rabbi of IKAR, Los Angeles

“Black life doesn’t matter. We keep sending this message over and over again. No matter what we do, the systems are not set up for a world where Black Lives Matter. So we can love all we want, but the children need protection. They are being murdered in the streets, in the parks at their grandma’s house, in the churches. No place is sacred. I am not surprised, but I am outraged and will continue to be outraged. I find myself in a perpetual state of outrage. This has been our past and our present, America. It is our responsibility to make sure it’s not our future. It will take all of us.”

— Linda Sarsour, Muslim community activist and executive director of the Arab American Association of New York

Attention Students, Parents, and Counselors!

FAFSA TIME IS HERE!!!

Enrollment for financial aid began

January 1, 2016

FAFSA is the Free Application for Federal Student Aid. Here is a quick information checklist:

- ✓ Make sure you have registered for your FSA ID. An FSA ID gives you access to Federal Student Aid's online systems and can serve as your legal signature.
- ✓ Check with the college(s) you are interested in attending. You may want to ask your college about its definition of an application deadline – whether it is the date the college receives your FAFSA, or the date your FAFSA is processed.
- ✓ Make sure your application is completed as soon as possible after January 1, 2016 if you will be attending a State of Illinois college/university. Awards are made until funds are depleted.

Here are some questions and answers about filing the FAFSA:

Q. Do I have to file the FAFSA online?

A. It is not required, but most filers do, and there are benefits to doing so.

Q. Do I need a PIN to fill out the FAFSA online?

A. In May, the rules changed so that instead of a PIN, FAFSA filers must use a Federal Student Aid ID, which consists of a user-created user name and password.

Q. Is there a fee for filling out the FAFSA?

A. No. The "F" in FAFSA stands for "free," and consumers should be wary of websites pitching help for a fee.

For further information and the link to the FAFSA/FSAID website, go to www.endeleoinstitute.org.

Click on the Education tab and look for "Helpful Links."

If you need assistance in completing the FAFSA, please contact Carole Jacobs via email, cjacobs@trinitychicago.org or call 773-966-1583 for an appointment.

2016 Churchwide Theme and Scriptures

Theme: “The Fruit of The Spirit: Taste and See!”

But the Holy Spirit produces this kind of fruit in our lives: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against these things!

Galatians 5:22-23 (NLT)

January – Love

He answered, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself.” Luke 10:27 (NRSV)

February – Joy

Nehemiah said, “Go and enjoy good food and sweet drinks. Send some to people who have none, because today is a holy day to the Lord. Don’t be sad, because the joy of the LORD will make you strong.” Nehemiah 8:10 (NCV)

March – Peace

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Matthew 5:9 (NIV)

April – Patience

Wait on the LORD; Be of good courage, And He shall strengthen your heart; Wait, I say, on the LORD!

Psalm 27:14 (NKJV)

May – Kindness

“This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says: Judge fairly, and show mercy and kindness to one another. Do not oppress widows, orphans, foreigners, and the poor. And do not scheme against each other. Zechariah 7:9-10 (NLT)

June – Goodness

Who is wise and understanding among you? Let them show it by their good life, by deeds done in the humility that comes from wisdom. But if you harbor bitter envy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not boast about it or deny the truth.

James 3:13-14 (NIV)

July – Faithfulness

Jesus said to the people who believed in him, “You are truly my disciples if you remain faithful to my teachings. And you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.” John 8:31-32 (NLT)

August – Gentleness

By the humility and gentleness of Christ, I appeal to you—I, Paul, who am “timid” when face to face with you, but “bold” toward you when away! I beg you that when I come I may not have to be as bold as I expect to be toward some people who think that we live by the standards of this world. For though we live in the world, we do not wage war as the world does. 2 Corinthians 10:1-3 (NIV)

September – Self Control

So prepare your minds for action and exercise self-control. Put all your hope in the gracious salvation that will come to you when Jesus Christ is revealed to the world. So you must live as God’s obedient children. Don’t slip back into your old ways of living to satisfy your own desires. You didn’t know any better then. 1 Peter 1:13-14 (NLT)

October – Forgive One Another

Get rid of all bitterness, rage, anger, harsh words, and slander, as well as all types of evil behavior. Instead, be kind to each other, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, just as God through Christ has forgiven you. Ephesians 4:31-32 (NLT)

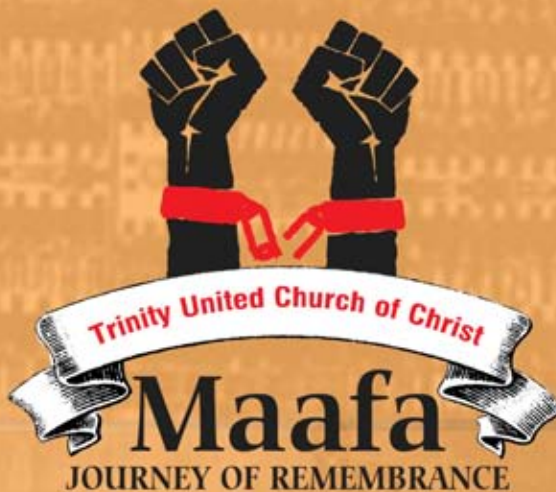

November – Service One Another

My brothers and sisters, God called you to be free, but do not use your freedom as an excuse to do what pleases your sinful self. Serve each other with love. Galatians 5:13 (NCV)

December – Build Up One Another

So encourage each other and build each other up, just as you are already doing.

1 Thessalonians 5:11 (NLT)
